 STAFF OF AHBC

REMEMBER:
 CHRISTMAS EVE
 CANDLELIGHT SERVICE
 DECEMBER 24

• PASTOR TO PEOPLE—BOB GREEN, SENIOR MINISTER

Christianity is a giving religion. It had its birth in God's wonderful gift of His Son to the world as Savior. "The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born tonight in Bethlehem!" (Luke 2:11 LB) Paul declared it to be a gift unspeakable (2 Corinthians 9:15). Words are all inadequate to describe it. Valued by what it cost, all the worlds that whirl in their orbits are not to be compared with this gift. Valued by what He does for those who receive Him, a thousand worlds rolled into one would sink into nothing before Him. Unspeakable is the mercy that thought it; unspeakable is the love that brought Him; unspeakable is the sinner's joy when he receives Him. Ours is the great joy when we have heard the good tidings and have received Him into our hearts. Christmas—the anniversary of the day of that Gift is always one of tremendous significance. In this day of hatred and war and conflict, the lesson has not been learned that Jesus came to set up a universal Kingdom over which He would reign in righteousness. Peace and goodwill were His offer then; they are His offer now. Let Christmas, with all its joy, teach us to love unselfishly, to give freely, and to dispense good will more eagerly.

There is an ongoing invitation to anyone who would like to pray in the Sanctuary on Sunday mornings at 8:30 am. We will pray for the morning services by prayer walking through the Sanctuary.

Southern Baptists: A praying people impacting a lost world

• MISSIONS—*Are we there yet?

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering

For the first time in history, we can identify the people groups that remain untouched by the gospel.

WE CAN GET THERE IN OUR GENERATION.

But the last part of the journey may be the hardest. It will take all of us—our missionaries, our national partners, our Great Commission partners, and Arrow Heights Baptist Church.

Southern Baptists must continue to give to support our missionaries through the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. We must pray strategically. And we must own the Great Commission as never before that all peoples may know him.

Arrow Heights goal:
